

Call for participants

Youth Exchange „wheelday - keep moving!“

You will spend an exciting week in Vienna with an interesting and well-balanced program full of new experiences and fun. Eighteen young people from Austria and Croatia with and without disabilities explore and learn about the lives of others while discovering new aspects of themselves.

You will...

- learn about the situation of people with disabilities
- experience disability and mobility, communication, employment, and art
- get to know great projects for the inclusion of people with disabilities
- contribute to current discussions on the inclusion of people with disabilities (your opinion counts!)
- take part in self-awareness exercises, for example we will have a guided museum tour for blind people and will be blindfolded ourselves
- learn new skills like reading Braille and sign language
- make new friends and contacts
- receive a confirmation of participation upon completion

When

9th to 14th of April 2017 (travel days included)

Where
